Cristina Pavesi was born in Milan, where she lives and works.
She graduated at the Fine Arts Academy of Brera in Milan in set design and achieved specializations in engraving and art therapy.
She has exhibited in solo and group exhibitions since 1992. Since 2002 she has produced short videos revisiting the classic genres of the art history like landscape and still life. This approach is not descriptive but metaphoric and ironic, based on experience and on a meditative sense of passage of time. Her videos have been screened internationally in public spaces, galleries and video festivals.

The following are the main recent videoprojection
